Lutheran Urges Registration of All by Police

Pastor Points to Similar Method in Europe as Deterrent to Crime

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Oct 19— A recommendation for police registration of all persons came before the convention of the United Lutheran Church in America today as Dr G H Bechtold of Philadelphia reported on a three-month study he made in England and Germany

Many Americans throw up their hands in horror at the thought of such universal registration he declared But some such step is necessary for the proper control of our shifting population—those children of the depression who roam over the country as they please

Both Germany and England said Bechtold have found police registration effective in curbing crime and in halting the wanderings of people without regular places of abode.

"When I entered a German or English city to spend the night I had to register and my registration went to the police authorities said Bechtold At first it seemed strange but I realized that such a system was necessary because of the great number of wanderers created by the economic depression

In Germany he said unemployed men move from city to city in search of work, but always under the supervision of officials who so direct their movements that no particular center suffers from an influx of jobless.

Such a system would put an end in our own country to this great floating population and to much of the crime which can be traced directly to the thousands of people who wander from coast to coast—their movements undirected and their actions unsupervised

Dr Bechtold superintendent of inner missions for the United Lutheran ministerium of Pennsylvania directs welfare work of the church in eastern Pennsylvania.

A report of the committee on moral and social welfare—includes recommendations for strict [illegible]trality on the part of the United States government a drive for temperance community selection of motion pictures and abolition of gambling—went to the delegates for formal approval

19 Die As Gale Sinks Ship Five Miles Off Cleveland

Seven of 26 Tell of Terrifying Night Clinging to Two Capsized Lifeboats as Victims Sank.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND Oct 19—The cold treacherous waters of Lake Erie held today bodies of 18 men and one woman victims of a 50-mile gale which overturned and sank the 252 foot Canadian sand sucker Sand Merchant in the second major disaster of the 1936 great lakes season

Of 26 aboard only seven remained to tell how a majority of their benumbed companions dropped off one by one from the two capsized lifeboats to which they clung through a terrifying night of waiting For 10 hours they watched unseeing ships pass them Then daylight brought their rescue five miles off Cleveland

One of the seven rescued was Graham MacLelland 30-year-old captain of the gale stricken ship Another was Herman Dault crane operator who lost two brothers—the second just 30 minutes before the rescue yesterday morning

It was the most terrible night that you could possibly imagine said Capt MacLelland his eyes bloodshot his face haggard

I owe my life to Dault and (John L) Ideson the three of us left of the seven hanging to our lifeboat Just after I gave the signal to man the boats we overturned like a flash

"There was no warning The first thing I knew I was in the water and something hit me I don't know where and I went out like a light The next thing I remember was some one pulling my hair and it made me mad

During the night several boats passed within sight in fact one was only about a quarter of a mile away We had no way to attract their attention Several times Dault and Ideson pulled me back on the lifeboat when I thought I was gone After 10 hours of hanging on we were rescued

Neared the End

I wouldn't have lasted much longer and Ideson wouldn't have lasted 10 minutes said the captain one of living triplets

Jack Meuse a deck engineer saved the only real treasure I had in this world—my girl's picture I always did think it was a pretty good thing to carry along with me and I'm certain of it now

Meuse's friend Amos Dault

TORONTO WOMAN AWAITS $750,000 MILLAR BABY

Tired Stork Circles Canadian Home Uncertainly After 23 Previous Trips to Same Place.

By The Associated Press

TORONTO Ont., Oct 19 — A stoical stork circled uncertainly today over 1097 West Dundas street with what looked like a $750 000 baby in his well worn bill

The tag read Deliver to Mrs Grace Bagnato before Oct. 31 but the bird was taking his sweet time about it

Not that he couldn't find Mrs. Bagnato Why, he knew Mrs Bagnato better than Damon knew Pythias or Boswell knew Johnson He'd been to Mrs. Bagnato's home he figured, oftener than to any place in Canada 23 times altogether.

It may have been that the stork was a bit groggy from all the overtime he'd been working during the last 10 years He blamed Charles Vance Millar for that Charles Vance Millar who died Oct. 31, 1926 leaving most of his wealth to the mother who should show the largest number of babies in a 10 year period ending a week from next Saturday.

The stork, wheeling leisurely around pondered Who was Charles Millar a bachelor almost to the point of being a misogynist, that he should display such an

NEW DEAL LAW TESTS DENIED

Supreme Court Refuses To Pass on Securities Act NRA and Relief Measure

OPPOSE PROCEDURE USED

Merits of Legislation Not Determined by Court's Refusal To Review Cases

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Oct 19 — The government won tactical victories in the Supreme court today when the nine justices refused to review litigation challenging the constitutionality of three new deal laws

The court declined to pass on an appeal filed by J Edward Jones New York securities dealer questioning the constitutionality of the 1933 truth in securities act requiring registration of stocks before public sale

It also refused to review an attack on provisions of the national industrial recovery act and of the 1935 emergency relief appropriation measure authorizing government loans and grants for construction of publicly-owned electric plants

Oppose Procedure

The action taken was purely on procedural grounds and had no direct relation to the merits of the legislation

The only statement made by the court was that the appeals were denied The government had opposed a review of the controversies

Government [illegible] for electric plants were assailed by the Texas Utilities Co and the Alabama Power Co in an effort to stop construction of plants in eight Texas and Alabama cities

A review of a similar controversy appealed by the Duke Power Co already had been promised by the court and arguments are to be heard the week of Nov 3

The Texas and Alabama companies lost in the federal district court for the District of Columbia and asked the Supreme court to review the case without awaiting a ruling by the circuit court so it could be argued along with the Duke appeal Such procedure is permitted occasionally

Loans for Plants

Involved were projected loans and grants from PWA or relief funds to aid in furnishing city owned electric systems to Plainview Texas and Florence Sheffield Tuscumbia Decatur Hartselle Guntersville and Russellville Ala

In the Jones case the second circuit court of appeals at New York upheld a temporary injunction to restrain him from violating the act.

Before starting another week of arguments the justices agreed to pass on disputes involving a Washington state sales tax imposed on articles imported for use in building Grand Coulee dam a seven year prison term imposed on Dirk De Jonge a Communist by Oregon courts for violation of the state's criminal syndicalism law,

Delaware Youth Killed at Cardington

Cardington's death-dealing railroad crossing, claimant of more than a score of lives in as many years added another victim Saturday night while the village's centennial celebration was at its height and put one young man in the Marion City hospital

Frank Crider 3[illegible] son of Mr and Mrs Charles Crider of Delaware was killed instantly and his companion Nelson D Butler 25 of near Delaware was seriously hurt when their car crashed into a Big Four fast passenger train bound from Cincinnati to Cleveland

Witnesses of the accident which occurred about 9 40 p m, said that Butler drove his car around four other cars which were stopped at the crossing and directly into the side of the train

Flasher lights installed about a year ago by the railroad were working, the train was speeding across the crossing and other cars were in a line waiting for the train to pass witnesses said

Victim Decapitated

The force of the impact demolished the car leaving little of the chassis and body whole except a wheel or two Crider decapitated and with his right arm severed at the elbow was killed instantly, and Butler driver of the car was badly bruised and cut about the face and body

The body of young Crider was taken to the Curl funeral home in Cardington and later was removed to the Brackney-Whiting funeral home in Delaware Butler was brought to the City hospital in the Curl ambulance

Butler's condition was fairly good' this morning the hospital reported and had rallied partially from the semi-conscious condition in which he was dragged from the wreckage

Crider's death was the sixth violent traffic death in Morrow county this year and according to records of a Cardington undertaking firm was the seventeenth death at the railroad crossing in the last eight years and the twenty-second since 1910

Four Prospect residents two men and two boys were killed at the crossing last April a year ago and three years ago the crossing claimed six persons in a period of 48 hours

Flasher Lights Installed

Last winter the railroad installed the flasher lights and recently the lights were put on arms and raised and extended out into the street visible for blocks in either direction residents said today The lights begin to flash for several minutes before the train passes over the crossing it was reported

The Butler automobile was traveling west on Route 42 and in

Wool Market

BOSTON Oct. 19—Domestic wool quotations were firm on the Boston market today although actual sales were rather slow

Members of the wool trade were confidently waiting for the reported improvement in the goods market to be reflected in a call from mills for raw wool

Cable reports to private concerns in Boston indicated Australian markets to be quite active at firm prices.

PROSPECT TEACHER HEADS ASSOCIATION

Miss Filiatrault Elected President of Home Economics Group at Meeting Here.

Miss Hazel Huston, co-author of a text on home economics and at present assistant professor of home economics at Ohio State University, addressed members of the Marion County Home Economics association at a meeting at Central Junior High school Saturday morning.

During a brief business session, Miss Evelyn Filiatrault, instructor at Prospect, was elected president of the organization and Miss Jeanette Wallace, instructor at Green Camp, was elected secretary. Miss Filiatrault succeeds Mrs. Bessie Harper of LaRue, while Mrs. Wilda Goedicke of Pleasant township, served as secretary last year.

Two Marion city teachers, Miss Martha Tachanen and Miss Cleo Cline, were guests at the meeting. Following the meeting at Central Junior High school the group held a luncheon at Rogers's Inn on Prospect pike. Miss Huston and Mrs. D. T. Mills were guests at the luncheon.

It was planned for members of the group to hold study session at meetings during the year. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Filiatrault on Forest Lawn boulevard, in Marion, Nov. 14.

BRICKER AIRPLANE LANDS IN MARION

A group of Marion residents this morning greeted John W. Parker, pilot of the "Bricker-for-Governor" airplane when he landed at Marion airport in part of a statewide campaign tour.

Mr. Parker arrived at the port at 10:15 and was here several minutes. He brought a supply of campaign material and left here for Kenton. He came to Marion from Sandusky.

Among those who greeted him were Fred Werner, Eighth district member of the Republican state central committee and Bud H. Lawson, chairman of the Marion county Republican central and executive committees.

VIEW OF LAKE ERIE RESCUE AND LIFEBOAT WHICH SAVED FOUR

TALKS SCHEDULED BY CONG. FLETCHER

Congressman Brooks Fletcher today prepared to continue his schedule of talks throughout the Eighth district in the interests of his candidacy for reelection. He will speak tonight at 7 at Harpster and at 8:30 at Morral.

Tuesday night he will talk at McGuffey and Alger. On Wednesday night he will speak at 8 o'clock in the courthouse at Upper Sandusky. His Thursday night schedule calls for talks at Dunkirk and Dola, while on Friday night he will speak in the university auditorium at Ada. Saturday night he will take part in a district Democratic rally at Mt. Gilead.

REDUCTION IN TAXES APPROVED BY JUDGE

Company Likely To Stay in Bucyrus as Result of Action.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, O., Oct. 19 — That the W. A. Riddell Mfg. Co. will remain in Bucyrus was virtually assured this morning when Judge C. U. Ahl filed an entry ordering the company to pay $45,065.68 in delinquent taxes, meeting the company's application with the court seeking reduction of one-half of its total delinquent taxes of $90,000.

The application was filed several months ago by receivers of the company, and at the same time it was said that if the court did not approve the reduction the company would move to Mansfield where an agreement had been made to furnish the capital and building for the company.

Judge Ahl stipulated that the payment of $45,065.68 was for taxes on the operating plant only and was not to include taxes on other Bucyrus property owned by the company. He said he thought it was in the best interest of the city and the plant that the application be considered.

The company employs about 90 men in the building of road machinery.

WHERE THE TALK IS GAY

FIRST HUSBAND

Her fondness for society is partially blamed by friends for the divorce of Wallis and her first husband Lt E Winfield Spencer She wanted to be where the tea was flowing while he was devoted to aviation

* * *

This is the second of a series of four articles on the life of Mrs Ernest Simpson American woman whose association with the King of England has placed her in the international spotlight She recently arranged to sue for divorce

* * *

BY SIGRID ARNE
Associated Press Writer

BALTIMORE Oct 19 (AP)—Gossip has always trailed the glamorous Mrs Ernest Simpson for whose company the young King of England is showing such a marked preference Even in her school days Wallis Warfield Spencer Simpson was the subject of polite whispers

Slim dark-eyed with a pigtail tightly tied with a black bow she was never a beautiful child but she was the envy of her schoolmates

She was such a vivid vivacious person says Mrs John Sadler who studied at private school with her She had a taste in dress that always set her apart from the rest of us Why she was the only debutante in our year with a serious beau She always drew up to our deb parties in the long chauffeur driven car he sent around for her She had poise that made the rest of us look like clumsy children Now people are gossiping as usual about her But I say—more power to her

She came out at the Monday Germans—a series of dances at which daughters of the best Baltimore families make their entrance into society

Her given name was Bessie a name that runs through the Montague family But she dropped it in school days and demanded to be called Wallis her middle name

Liked the Boys

Mrs Sadler remembers one night that might have meant there would be no Mrs Ernest Simpson to attend the King of England's parties She and several other little girls stole away from school to go buggy riding Suddenly a guard on a nearby state shouted at them Get out of here You're trespassing

Seems queer now says Mrs Sadler But Wallis grew panicky She ran screaming to a creek that she was going to drown herself But we caught her and have teased her about it ever since

Mrs Sadler also remembers that Wallis Warfield was a girl who cared little for books but enjoyed designing her own dresses She preferred the company of boys and was a conversational match for men much older

Wed First Husband in 1916

When she was married to Lt E Winfield Spencer in 1916 Mrs Sadler says Wallis designed her wedding gown of white panne velvet and the ceremony is still recalled as one of the loveliest ever held in the city The couple left the church under an arch of swords held by friends of the bridegroom

Apropos of the wedding dress D Freddie Taylor a member of Baltimore's inner circle recalls a story

It had a train a mile long he commented to Wallis afterward What have you done with it

The train is an evening wrap now laughed Wallis I cut it off and I still have the dress Very good don't you think"

That first marriage failed Dr Taylor believes because of incompatibility Spencer was devoted to aviation, and wished to give all his time to his work His bride loved society She wanted to be where the tea was flowing and the talk was gay

"The marriage to Spencer was considered a good match recalls Taylor He came from a wealthy Hyde Park family in Chicago And he was well liked here She was in love with him too But when she married Simpson several years later I remember she was just as much in love He was also a man of reputed wealth and well liked"

Went to Wales Parties

In recent years she began mentioning the then Prince of Wales to Taylor She and Simpson had been to parties given by the prince

He's the most natural simple-mannered agreeable young man imaginable" she told Taylor

"Do you address him as sir" asked Taylor

Oh always—in public laughed Wallis

Since then many of her relatives and schoolday friends have spent vacations in London coming back with more stories to add to the Wallis Warfield legend

One cousin remembers her laughing uproariously to herself in the bath one morning in her luxurious London apartment What in the world is the matter" called the cousin through the closed door

Nothing nothing shouted Wallis from her tub Just laughing at the exigencies of my old existence in Baltimore—and now look at me

Wallis Is "Just The Same

Another was at Biarritz two seasons ago when Mrs Simpson was a member of the small party entertained by the king there

They went here and there together—to the casino the beach and the gala dinners she says But they never appeared alone together They were always accompanied by Mrs Buchanan Merryman of Washington an aunt of Wallis They had their own cabana on the beach and usually took a dip in the morning But Biarritz is so accustomed to the king's presence there was little curiosity

Several other Baltimoreans have met the king at small cocktail parties in Mrs Simpson's London apartment He drops in alone and chats gayly they say And Wallis they are pleased over this is just the same as she was years ago simple dignified witty and generous But Baltimoreans explain that easily She's so well born

MONDAY OCTOBER 19, 1936

THE STATE TICKET.

INTENSE interest in an unusually important presidential election has drawn attention from the state ticket this year.

There has been in fact less to attract attention to the state contest than usual because of the decisive advantage held by John W. Bricker head of the Republican ticket over Gov. Martin L. Davey.

Mr. Bricker who commands the faith of his party so completely he was nominated without opposition is expected to be Ohio's next governor regardless of the outcome of the presidential election in the state. He has the complete support of his own party, plus the support of many Democrats determined not to give Gov. Davey a second term.

Confidence in Mr. Bricker is well placed. He is a capable man of a type too rarely found in politics. Even if the bill of particulars against his opponent were less formidable than it is Mr. Bricker still would be the heavy favorite in the contest for the governorship. Ohio has been proud of him as its attorney general. It would be proud of him as its governor. Unlike Gov. Davey he would give the electorate none of the exhibitions of cheap politics which have caused so many persons to wonder why they voted the way they did in 1934.

An accident of the frequently unsatisfactory primary system has made the rest of the slate of state Republican candidates worthy of blanket indorsement.

Paul M. Herbert candidate for lieutenant governor has served two terms in the house of representatives and two in the senate. The position he seeks is next to the governorship in importance. Mr. Herbert together with Mr. Bricker as governor would go far toward curing the legislative paralysis which has afflicted Ohio under Gov. Davey. It would be an able combination if Mr. Herbert were to be elected presiding officer of the state senate with Mr. Bricker in the governor's chair.

Earl Griffith is Republican nominee for secretary of state. He is a newspaper publisher of Mt. Gilead with a record of broad activity and interest in his community's affairs. His qualification for the position he seeks is his record of success in private life.

Candidates for state auditor and treasurer are Joseph T. Tracy and Harry S. Day. Both are completely familiar with their duties and in neither case is there any valid reason for supplanting them with new state officers. They have performed the tasks of their offices capably and deserve to be reelected.

Thomas J. Herbert unrelated to Paul M. Herbert is candidate for attorney general to succeed Mr. Bricker. Mr. Herbert would maintain the high standard which Mr. Bricker has set for the attorney generalship. His name is last on a state ticket of well qualified Republican candidates who deserve support not merely as nominees of a party but as men who are willing and able to conduct Ohio's affairs as they should be conducted.

Never Too Busy.

Seven Detroit millionaires sons of a Norwalk carriage maker and blacksmith never were so busy that they could not visit their mother at least once a week despite a multitude of business claims against their time. It was a family motto of the Fisher brothers auto body builders that "Our father taught us to work and play together." They never forgot the motto.

A few years ago when their father died the brothers brought their mother to Detroit and built her a palatial home. But Mrs. Fisher cared little for the glitter of wealth. She just wanted to see her boys and girls. So every week sometimes more than once all of these brothers took time to visit their mother. Her birthday always was the occasion of a family reunion.

Now Mrs. Fisher is dead and the brothers were united in grief as they stood around her bedside at the last. Wealth never marred for them the beauty of the family relationship.

MATTER OF FINANCING

As we understand current administration distinctions a political presidential tour is one paid for by the national committee and a non-political tour is one paid for by the federal taxpayer. Otherwise there's no difference.—Troy (N. Y.) Record.

What Do Crowds Mean?

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1936 by The Marion Star

Today's dispatch deals with the situation in Michigan thirty second state to be visited by David Lawrence in his personal survey of the campaign in the 40 states outside the solid south.

* * *

DETROIT Mich. Oct. 19 — What do crowds mean? Bryan used to have tremendous outpourings of people — and usually lost on election day. Theodore Roosevelt used to have big crowds and usually won on election day.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt is getting immense crowds—better than those of Governor Landon by far. Some of this may be stimulated by the organizations political and labor and some of it may be of the curiosity type but anybody who saw the huge turn out here cannot but feel that the demonstration is corroborative of the point of view held by well informed observers—the cities and industrial centers have been captured by Mr. Roosevelt.

Indeed Michigan presents exactly the same lines of demarcation that I have found in Ohio and in Indiana. In other words if you can learn just how strong the ratio for Mr. Roosevelt is in the cities and factory centers and how strong the ratio for Mr. Landon is in the towns and country districts the outcome of each state can be predicted with almost mathematical accuracy.

It is precisely because the polls that have been taken are not regarded as final or conclusive as yet on these points that a state like Michigan is truly doubtful. Now according to reliable information that came to me here not from anybody connected with the companies themselves but from persons who vouch for it absolutely a poll was taken early last month in an important automobile plant employing many thousands of workmen. Indeed one of the big factories and the result was about 8 to 1 for Roosevelt. A few weeks later in the same plant a poll was taken and the ratio was 7 to 1 for Roosevelt and in the last few days here the ratio is said to have been 6 to 1 for Roosevelt.

Labor Asks Questions

This is about the same story one gets in other industrial centers in Ohio and Indiana. The Republicans are certainly making some inroads into the labor vote I imagine. They are winning back skilled workers who are beginning to feel that Mr. Roosevelt's tieup with John Lewis can only mean moral support for the industrial type of union instead of the craft type of union. This ultimately it is contended will bring a levelling off of the wages of the skilled workers who are in the minority in order to improve the position of the unskilled workers who belong in the majority will dominate collective bargaining operations.

Then there's the growing conversation about the payroll tax which levy will naturally affect the skilled worker more than the unskilled because the former gets higher pay and will get a deeper cut in his pay envelope Jan. 1 when the Roosevelt administration's tax goes into effect. Many of the workers in the auto plants are of the skilled group and if the Republicans managed to wean away a sufficient number to hold the majorities in the cities down the country and town vote may be sufficient to enable Governor Landon to carry Michigan.

Most of the editors in various sections of the state are agreed that the rural vote is heavily Republican much stronger than in 1932 with a substantial though not overwhelming gain this year over 1934 congressional and local elections.

There seems to be a feeling that votes are being changed in these last weeks of the campaign and that the citizens who at first were inclined merely to vote their emotions are beginning to ask questions dealing with the facts and logic of campaign issues.

About 50-50 Proposition

Michigan on the whole seems to be a 50-50 proposition to date. Maybe Mr. Roosevelt might have the edge as matters stand today though it is significant the Democrats are just as nervous about the outcome as are their opponents. The average observer on the outside can make up his mind that with the precious little time available for campaigning and the job that Mr. Roosevelt has to do in New England and New York where the fight is an uphill one there would not have been such great efforts made to bring about a demonstration in Detroit if Michigan had been in the bag.

The mass demonstration then appears to be an integral part of the new deal strategy and it has a bearing on the so-called band wagon vote which is substantial and always goes with the surface tides.

Michigan cannot be put down as safe for either side but the Republicans privately insist they will win by 100,000 and the Democrats privately are hoping for a plurality of about [illegible]000 or 30,000 for Mr. Roosevelt.

My own impression is that as the whole central west goes Michigan will go. To put it another way I expect Ohio Indiana and Michigan to be found in the same column the day after election but with small margins. That isn't of course a convincing indication of what to expect but it comes near to describing accurately the baffling character of the electorate as one finds it by talking to disinterested persons who know the state and to seasoned campaigners who are frank enough behind closed doors to tell you the truth as they see it.

"Why I Changed"

WILLIAM HARD radio commentator speaking for the Republican national committee recently announced winners in a contest for the best letters explaining why the writers will switch from President Roosevelt to Gov. Landon at the polls Nov. 3.

The first prize of $500 was awarded the writer of the following letter a Kansas City Mo. clergyman. Judge of the contest was Prof. Earl DeLong of the political science department of Northwestern university. The letter is republished herewith.

In 1932 I was for Roosevelt because it seemed that at last we were to have effective action towards alleviating the terrible distress caused by the depression.

I have changed to Landon.

Because I have ceased to believe in the sincerity of Roosevelt.

Because Roosevelt cannot escape responsibility for the acts of Farley, Hopkins, Tugwell and others.

Because millions of unemployables have been created by the bungling wasteful methods of the WPA.

Because of the wreckage of the principle of the civil service and the political exploitation of the hunger of millions of needy people.

Because of the increasing cost of living and the increasing burden on all types of business caused by ever mounting taxation.

Because I believe that the power and functions of the supreme court must be safeguarded.

Because I believe that the centralization of power is becoming a real menace to our institutions.

Because I abominate the persecution of people who are opposed to the new deal.

Because I believe Landon to be sincere, courageous, sagacious and fundamentally sound on social, economic and moral issues.

Employment Rivals

BY JOHN LOVE
From The Cleveland Press

WHEN Gov. Landon said that nobody knew how many people in this country were out of work he was pointing to one of the strangest gaps that exist anywhere in the world's statistics.

The United States is more spangled with figures than any other country even Russia but we depend on estimates alone for the number of our jobless. The estimates of the A. F. of L. may be pretty good (though I believe they are high) but they are only estimates even though they are made with government help. Nobody has the facts.

Plenty of efforts have been made to obtain a census of the unemployed and one of them got as far as President Roosevelt. He blocked it. Mr. Roosevelt doesn't want a count of the jobless. No reasons have been given.

Some months ago the word got around that a genuine census of the unemployed would be taken after the election. That seemed to take out of the chief objection the political timing. But hope has since dimmed and so far as I have seen there are no preparations for an enumeration of the out-of-work.

The reasons for the increase of relief costs under the WPA may be concealed from us as Gov. Landon said they were but it is not hard for people to get at some of them.

One of the reasons is evidently the need of WPA for hiring skilled men at prevailing rates of wages. Some of these prevailing rates are now the same as the going rates. When the work the WPA is doing requires a certain number of skilled men and these men cannot be found on relief it can go out and hire them subject to the quotas specified on these jobs and these hirings bring the WPA into competition with industry for workers.

WPA people have been heard to complain that they could not complete their projects if they were unable to get the men they need. I have not heard employers complain the WPA was taking men away but I have heard it said the WPA was making it hard to get certain types of men. In other words the WPA was making it hard for private employers to complete their projects.

If a shortage of skilled men handicaps the WPA—and it has done so at times—it will do as much for private industry. If employers are thus retarded in their own projects then they will not be able to take on additional men from the unskilled groups and you will find unemployment continuing among the unskilled.

If WPA and private industry get into a scramble for the remaining supply of skilled men a supply which has disappeared in several crafts then the number of unemployed will not go down. It may even go up. For the unskilled cannot go to work until the skilled men do.

For such reasons I suspect we shall see a considerable modification of the WPA next year no matter who is president.

It is not hard to see either why the cost of WPA has continued high at the same time employment in industry has been increasing. One reason is that people who are getting jobs include a number who are related to people on WPA payrolls. These latter may or may not resign from the WPA and there is nothing to compel them to.

We should call these families thrifty and energetic and probably they are but somehow they don't fit into President Roosevelt's description of the relief problem. There is nothing to prevent the WPA and private industry one of these times discovering the two together are employing more persons than ever worked before.

When the WPA does decide to slash its rolls it will have to cut blindly unless it hires a staff of investigators like the one FERA had. It is safe to say though that these cuts will not take place before election. Look for them next year.

The Roosevelt Record

5.—Taxation Through Misrepresentation

His mind is not very clear, his purposes are not simple and his methods are not very direct.—Walter Lippmann on Franklin D. Roosevelt June 8 1932.

ON Sept. 23 1932 when Mr. Roosevelt was a candidate for the presidency he gave this pledge of action to that office:

I shall use this position of high responsibility to discuss up and down the country in all seasons at all times the duty of reducing taxes of increasing the efficiency of government of cutting out the underbrush around our governmental structure of getting the most public service for every dollar paid by taxation. This I pledge to you and nothing I have said in the campaign transcends in importance this covenant with the taxpayers of this country.

Like his promises to stop the deficits and reduce expenditures Mr. Roosevelt's advocacy of tax reduction won him many votes. But the President suggested no tax reductions. At first he proposed only certain minor enlargements of the federal taxes. These included a progressive increase in the surtax on incomes over $1,000 excess profits and capital stock taxes for corporations liquor taxes and a renewal of the so-called nuisance taxes of which more than half affected automobiles directly or indirectly and others included such items as cosmetics and telephones.

Despite the mounting expenditures and deficits the President stated expressly in his budget message of Jan. 6 1935 that he did not consider it advisable to propose any new or additional taxes for 1935 other than the extension of the nuisance taxes.

Six months later—on June 7 1935—when rumors of increased taxes were rife one of the reporters at the White House press conference asked if any new taxes were being considered. The President stated that he had given no thought to taxation for more than a month.

Twelve days later the President abruptly submitted to congress his famous Soak-the-Rich message urging increased inheritance estate and corporation taxes and demanded that the new taxes revolutionary in their implication be passed within the week. The new taxes were estimated to yield from $100,000,000 to $900,000,000.

On Jan. 3 1936 the President in his radio address on the state of the nation said that no new taxes over and above the present ones are either advisable or necessary.

Three months later he asked in a special message for new surtaxes estimated to yield $1,100,000,000.

Thus twice within a little more than a year Mr. Roosevelt let it be known that no new taxes were contemplated. Shortly after these assurances he made large new tax demands on the country.

Is this the end?

In September 1936 Mr. Roosevelt announced once more that he contemplated no new taxes. But if the present rate of expenditure is to be continued and the budget is to be balanced experts declare that it will be necessary to raise $1.50 in taxes for every $1 now collected.

In view of this record a new and more staggeringly enormous tax bill would seem to be the logical and prompt sequel to Mr. Roosevelt's reelection.

The passing of Father Joe McGrath who shepherded derelicts along the water fronts for 30 years recalls a story of the old Park Row days and Father McGrath's kindly e trait. It involves perhaps the only story Arthur McKeogh ever faked. It was during his cubship on the old Evening Sun.

Came Labor day 1913 as barren of news as a nut. McKeogh appeared at the city desk and reported he had seen McGrath rescue a florist's wife at the Staten Island beach after she had gone down twice—himself fully clothed. McKeogh was told to get to his typewriter and hamer it out for a column. Little faint voiced Tommy Dieuaide the city editor who had fathered Richard Harding Davis, Arthur Brisbane, Irvin Cobb and Will Irwin ordered the story top column Page 1 for early editions and this is slated the interminable day.

All the while the cub trembled at his foolhardy temerity even as he winked at the compliments of the staff on his exclusive. The fake was hatched this wise on the preceding day. McKeogh and G. F. Hughes financial writer had met Father McGrath on the beach with a florist and his wife. On the way home McKeogh's fictional sense began feeling its oats and the tale was born. The only truth was the identities of those involved. And McKeogh took the precaution to end the story by stating Father McGrath refused to be interviewed. Father McGrath an understanding soul took the kid off the hook.

And when other reporters flocked to him to confirm the yarn he told them nothing but the truth: "I wouldn't know a thing about it!"

Line Up for War

Belgium's Move Just Another Turn of Wheel

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 — Belgium's move to [illegible] her military alliance [illegible] was more than an idle [illegible] the European diplomatic [illegible] wind. It was another turn of the war weathervane more definitely toward realignment of [illegible] friendships on a basis of fascism and Communism.

World diplomats are giving public interpretations but they know the reason behind it. They all inwardly accept France as practically Communistic from an international diplomatic standpoint. They see not only the Franco-Russian alliance but a balance of power wielded by Communists in the French chamber of deputies.

The Belgians also saw that and wanted no part of it. Perhaps they saw further than the danger of war in Europe now is between Germany and Russia. They did not want to be drawn in directly by their old alliance with France.

Division

It does not mean war but it does mean the decline of France as a world power unless she can extricate herself. It spoils the pretense of the old French foreign policy of security. It would leave her only Russia as a certain ally, surrounded by Fascist Germany, Italy and Spain with such constitutional monarchies as England and Belgium drawing away from her.

French statesmen will undoubtedly do all they can to keep the Belgian king's assertion of neutrality from being carried [illegible] fully. They may succeed sufficiently to muddle the issue but they cannot turn the [illegible] which is definitely against them.

War will come when the Fascist camps are solidified ad core[illegible] when the coming Fascist government of Spain is entrenched with Fascist Germany and Italy [illegible] up to the Soviet border consolidating their positions and [illegible] ence in Austria Hungary and the Balkans.

Pressure

Low salaried employes in more than one government office are beginning to wish that these Ponts would give something to the Democratic campaign. The burden is getting just a little heavy.

They did not mind when they were invited to take $10 seats at the Jackson Day dinner and later when they were similarly invited to buy a convention book for $5. But a few days ago along came an invitation to contribute 2 per cent of their salary to state campaign committees which are not under the strict rigid restrictions against [illegible] federal donations as is the national committee. This meant a contribution for each $1,000 of salary and in some cases [illegible].

The solicitation in one [illegible] however was about 100 per cent perfect.

Taxes

Suggestion by RFC Chairman Jones that the corporation tax law would be modified next session was not accepted here as official.

Mr. Jones has always [illegible] the law was wrong. He wanted deductions for plant expansion and debt retirement. In fact Mr. Jones, FRB Gov. Eccles and FDIC Chairman Crowley are understood to have worked inside for some such liberalization of the bill in congress against the treasury last session. But the treasury prevailed.

Modifications of the law next session if any will be in the hands of the treasury. The question is whether President Roosevelt will side with the Morgenthau-Oliphant group of advisers as he has so far or whether he will come around to the viewpoint of Messrs. Crowley, Eccles and Jones whose advice was not followed often in the past year.

Imaginings

There are at least two cabinet rumors for every cabinet office except Wallace and Hull. Imaginary flights of gossip have conjured the following possibilities if Mr. [illegible] son for the temporary [illegible] Roosevelt is reelected: Gen. Johnson Department chair, Mayor LaGuardia for labor, Senator [illegible] commerce and also with Joseph Kennedy and Gov. Lehman for treasury, Gov. McNutt for war, Donald Richberg for attorney general also Johnson or Richberg, Harry Hopkins.

The ideas are pure speculation partly for campaign [illegible] purposes but some of the suggestions are believed to have been talked officially. LaGuardia, Cowens and McNutt are the best [illegible].

MISINFORMED

In the early fall of 186[illegible] a senator at Washington reported he had seen a letter from a [illegible] in the Union army who had written to his brother that he was a "victim of the imbecility of Gen. Pope and the treason of Gen. McDowell."

The letter was written by Col. Thornton F. Broadhead of the First Michigan cavalry. McDowell requested the war department to make an investigation. He said in his communication to the secretary of war there was not the least doubt that Col. Broadhead believed the charge made was true.

The request was granted. An able court selected and its work occupied a number of weeks. The court fully exonerated Gen. McDowell.

The Wrong Murderer

By HUGH CLEVELY

[illegible]

CHAPTER ONE

[illegible]

heir hands they carried small automatic pistols fitted with silencers Their leader the man who had already spoken prodded Bassett roughly with his automatic.

"We've come for Lake" he stated harshly "You know who sent us."

Bassett's hands held up above his head were trembling visibly his expression was one of shivering terror

Lake he stammered I ain't seen Mr Lake You can search the place mister you won't find im ere

I know damned well I can search he place and I shan't find him, returned the other man curtly If I thought I could find him by simply searching the house I'd have plugged you straight off

Things were going exactly as Bassett had planned

Lead on went on the other man And if you so much as squawk you'll get shot where it will hurt like hell but won't kill you

The punch knocked Flynn across the room

[illegible]

There was apparently no fight left in Fatty Bassett

If if I take you to Mr Lake you won't shoot me afterwards he whimpered

If you don't take us to him I'll shoot you right away through the knee to start with replied the leader of the invaders contemptuously Get on with it

Shivering Bassett led the way up the stairs the three men followed close on his heels their guns ready for instant action

None of Fatty's friends appeared the house seemed quite silent and empty Fatty led the way through the hall and up a flight of stairs There he paused for a moment on a small landing and then flung open the door of a room

It was a long narrow room with a large built in cupboard stretching the entire length of one wall. Seated in a chair placed against the wall opposite to the cupboard was Lake His hands and ankles were tied securely to the chair, and he was gagged

The leader of the invading party gave an exclamation of satisfaction and hurried forward. His two men followed him For one moment they were off their guard their backs were towards the cupboard as they clustered round the chair untying Lake. Fatty Bassett coughed

Then everything happened with incredible swiftness The door of the cupboard suddenly flew open, and Fatty's three men sprang out, their pistols in their hands They did not shoot, since their pistols were not fittde with silencers, but in the same movement with which they left the cupboard they hurled themselves at the three invaders

* * *

The invading party taken utterly by surprise had hardly time to offer any real resistance Before they could even aim their guns Flynn's huge fist with a big Colt clasped in it, had smashed one of them to the floor Chippy had knocked another senseless But the third man of Fatty Bassett's party was unlucky

Just as he hit at the other man of the invading party the man moved the blow which had been meant for his head glanced off his shoulder The man staggered, and in the act of staggering he fired. There was a short muffled rap as the silenced automatic went off and Fatty's man clasped both hands suddenly to his chest, and with an agonised gasp, sank to the floor

With a roar like that of an angry lion big Barney Flynn turned and sprang before the man had time to fire again his huge fist landed with terrific impact that lifted the man off his feet and knocked him senseless clean across the room With a tremendous crash of glass his limp falling body struck the window and went slap through the window falling 10 feet into the street.

There was a pause of utter consternation inside the room

"Gawdelpus" exclaimed Bassett. "That's done it. We'll have the cops ere in a minute now"

He bent swiftly over the man who had been shot

"Slim's got is orlright he went on There ain't nothing we can do for im It's up to us to get out of ere as quickly as we can Catch old of that bloke Barney and foller me both of you"

Barney seized the bound figure of Lake and lifted it easily chair and everything in his powerful arms. They mounted another flight of stairs and there in a small attic Bassett bent down and pressed strongly on a portion of the wall Silently it swung back disclosing a hidden doorway into the house next door They went through the doorway and Bassett swung the wall to behind them

Wait ere a moment" said Bassett

He swiftly descended the stairs to the pawnshop on the ground floor Nominally that pawnshop was owned by one Eli Solomon actually it was owned by Fatty Bassett

Look ere Eli I've been in your back room for the last hour said Bassett swiftly Is the furniture van in the yard at the back?

Tomorrow the police arrive—with Ruth still in the house

POLITICAL GALE RAGES IN OHIO

Batteries of Orators Resume Offensive in Last-Ditch Drive To Swing State

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Oct 19—Slowed only by a Sabbath respite battling forces in Ohio's torn political battlefield drew on their reserves today for last-ditch drives

Verbal cannonading on government relief financing labor and all other political subjects moved into a day and night schedule to continue until two weeks from tonight

Two weeks from tomorrow 2 800 000 Ohioans will have weighed claims and counter claims of Republicans Democrats Union party supporters Communists Prohibitionists and Social Laborites

Their reaction will decide who will administer the state government for the next two years and may reflect the political trend of the nation

Orators Storm State

New deal forces threw a corps of orators into the state to bid for Ohio's 26 important presidential electoral votes Speaking tonight in support of President Roosevelt will be U S Sen V Donahey at Dayton Sen Robert J Bulkley and Charles West under secretary of the interior at Toledo and U S Sen Millard Tydings of Maryland at Newark Gov Martin L Davey planned a radio speech for delivery at Cincinnati and was scheduled to attend political rallies in Hamilton county

Leading the Republican onslaught Atty Gen John W Bricker Davey's opponent for re election goes to Steubenville Heading the list of their Republican speech makers was former Gov Henry J Allen of Kansas in Canton

Intensive activity by both major parties — Republicans and Democrats—served as further evidence that neither regarded the votes of this politically pivotal state as in their camp

Democratic Four Years Ago

Ohio threw its support four years ago to a Democratic presidential nominee — Franklin D Roosevelt—by a majority of 74 000 votes but only for the third time under the present election system

Over the week end Gov Davey again criticized Bricker and predicted his own reelection in a huge rally here

Davey reiterated previous assertions that Bricker was owned body and soul by Harry P Wolfe Columbus newspaper publisher and that Wolfe wants to control the state government

West began his Ohio campaign tour at the same rally asserting that if the old guard (Republican) leadership should be returned to power and given an opportunity to appoint judges of the supreme court it would take another generation to rid the country of Wall street dictatorship

Hugh Johnson Speaks

Hugh S Johnson former NRA chieftain spoke in Cleveland Saturday night and described Gov Alf M Landon Republican presidential nominee as just a substitute Hoover dressed up as a jayhawker In another Cleveland auditorium Donald Richberg also a former NRA leader urged adoption of a program of planned economy

Republican state headquarters announced that Col Frank Knox Republican vice presidential nominee would make two more appearances in Ohio one at Toledo Thursday and another later in Dayton Former Gov Myers Y Cooper of Cincinnati also is to take up active campaigning for the Republicans next week

SUPREME COURT MAY GET OHIO MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Three Judge Federal Tribunal Expected To Voice Ruling on Suit in Columbus Nov 20

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O, Oct 19—Another chapter expected to head the question to the U S supreme court may be written in the history of Ohio's minimum wage law by a three judge federal court here Nov 20

Thirteen other states with similar statutes watched developments closely

The judges one of them a woman will come here to hear arguments in two other cases and court attaches considered it possible today that they might announce then their decision in a suit attacking the minimum wage law's constitutionality

Interest in the forthcoming decision was heightened a week ago when the U S supreme court refused to reconsider its decision of last June 1 holding unconstitutional the New York minimum wage law

The controversy over whether a state may dictate minimum wages for women and minors in private industry is almost certain to go back before the highest court Parties on both sides have declared they will carry the fight to the U S supreme court if they lose

On one side is Mrs Agnes B Dickinson Columbus attorney and former special counsel in the attorney general's office with support of the Ohio Hotels association She contends the law abrogates the federal constitutional guarantee of a right to make contracts

On the other side are Ora B Chapman state director of industrial relations and former president of the Ohio Federation of Labor and Miss Elaine Sheffler head of the minimum wage division Representing them in court is the office of Atty Gen John W Bricker

Sitting in judgment in the suit are Mrs Florence Allen of the sixth district U S circuit court of appeals and federal district judges Mell G Underwood and Robert P Nevin They heard arguments Aug 1

WILL 'WALLY' ATTEND KING EDWARD PARTY?

Monarch Plans Fete as Official Mourning Period for Father Nears End

By The Associated Press

LONDON Oct 19—King Edward planned royal entertainment today for his prospective house party guests at Sandringham but whether Mrs Ernest Simpson would be included among the visitors remained undisclosed

The British monarch motored to his country residence yesterday for the first stay there since his father died at the Norfolk estate last January

A court circular announced the ruler was accompanied by Maj Ulick Alexander keeper of the privy purse and Commander Charles Lambe

Mrs Simpson the king's American friend who last week began suit to divorce her husband on misconduct grounds was reported invited to attend the royal house party

London increasingly aware of the divorce proceedings although British newspapers have published no word of it speculated on the future status of the former Wallis Warfield of Baltimore who has become the king's social companion

Discussion of the divorce suit held top place over plans for a gay winter season as the official nine months period of mourning for the late King George drew to a close this week

Some Mayfair gossip included mention of King Edward's and Mrs Simpson's names in speculations on a possible morganatic marriage but the talk drew immediate denials from other conversationalists

RUSSIA DETERMINED TO QUIT PEACE PACT

Kremlin Angered Over Delay in Application of Neutrality Measures.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW Oct 19 — Russia angered over delay in application of practical measures to enforce neutrality in the Spanish civil war is determined to withdraw from the non intervention accord, informed sources declared today

Soviet denunciation of the hands off Spain" agreement signed by 27 European nations will be based on the assertion public opinion can no longer tolerate the disgraceful situation to which the neutrality pact has sunk these sources asserted

The kremlin has made up its mind on the withdrawal it was reported and may announce its decision today or tomorrow

Statements in authoritative Russian newspapers made it plain Russia desires to break up the agreement so that nations friendly to the Madrid government will not be bound by the past.

Diplomatic circles in the Russian capital considered it unlikely —despite previous Soviet intimations—the kremlin would order military assistance sent to the Madrid Socialist government

Why People Have Confidence In Brooks Fletcher

The following reprinted in part from the biography entitled "Interesting Episodes in Life of Brooks Fletcher"

Brooks Fletcher Has the Moral Courage to Fight for the Right

Brooks Fletcher

For his championship of the cause of the common man Brooks Fletcher of Marion Congressman from the Eighth District of Ohio has won the esteem and confidence of his constituents men and women alike regardless of party

Residents of his district are unanimous in their expressions of confidence in the honesty high character moral courage and ability of Brooks Fletcher

Honesty

This confidence springs from his fearless championship of humanitarian measures that will do the greatest good to the greatest number from his sincerity of purpose his standing as a good neighbor and a fine citizen and his reputation as a clean living honest man

The Acid Test

It has often been said that to learn the truth about a man it is only necessary to visit his home town where people know him for just what he is as a man I have done this on many occasions and I probably know Brooks Fletcher more intimately than most of those who have written about him I knew him in college and booked his first professional speaking engagements under Redpath Management.

Moral Courage

Every fair minded citizen even though he may differ on political issues regards Mr Fletcher as being an honest fearless statesman of unusual ability and one with a vision extending far beyond the lines of partisanship

Senator Vic Donahey Says:

Brooks Fletcher has one of the best records in congress in behalf of the common man

It is the opinion of all who put principle above party that a man of Brooks Fletcher's clean life and thousand per cent record of service to the people should be backed by the people as long as he will consent to serve," says Hon Charles West.

Brooks Fletcher is one of the first outstanding public men in America to advocate Old Age Pensions based on common sense

If you want sober men men of moral character honesty and courage to fight for the right then vote for Brooks Fletcher for Congress It is a vote for yourself

If Your Car Is Stolen, The Odds Are It Will Be Recovered Shortly

BY CHARLES HOSTETLER

If your automobile is stolen today the odds are that it will be returned to your garage unharmed within a week by the police department. During the first nine months of 1936 53 automobiles were reported stolen to the police department and 52 stolen autos were recovered

About 90 per cent of the cars reported stolen in Marion are found within ten days the most of which are picked up the same day or within 48 hours from the time they are first missed More than half of the remaining ten per cent will be found within a month's time while a few go unlocated for a longer period and still others are never found

The recovery of stolen autos is the concern of every member of the police department and they work in conjunction with county officials and state highway patrolmen in tracking down the identities of abandoned cars

This year is running about normal with the figures compiled for 1935 so far as stolen autos are concerned Last year 69 were stolen and 72 recovered Those figures may appear unbalanced but the 69 represents the actual number of cars reported stolen to the Marion police department while the discrepancy is accounted for by the fact that several cars stolen from other cities were recovered here However only one of the 69 Marion cars reported stolen was never located

Many for Joy Rides

About three-fourths of the thefts police assume are made by persons who merely borrow the car for a particular purpose Some are taken by joy riders while others are borrowed for a short trip and are often abandoned where they will be located easily The few which are never found usually are taken to distant cities where engine numbers and body assemblies are changed to prevent tracing them

Marion by its location in the central part of Ohio is normally free from the interstate rings of car stealers who take the vehicles for resale It is much less effort to pick up cars in cities near the state boundaries and remove them to change assemblies in another state

State radio broadcasts police officials here assert have assisted materially in cutting down the number of automobile thefts and in locating stolen cars as well as the owners of abandoned autos Through the radio facilities authorities can begin work on tracing a stolen auto while the trail is still hot" Within several minutes after a theft is reported city police, sheriff's offices and state highway patrolmen throughout Ohio are given a complete description of the missing car

In cases when no broadcast is made a written summary containing information concerning the auto and the circumstances of its theft goes out to all the authorities within 24 to 48 hours.

Here's How It Works

Here's the usual method of operation when John Q Public from an uptown shopping tour or a visit to the theater to find his car missing Nine times out of ten Mr Public has left his car unlocked or forgot to remove the keys from the ignition switch He telephones or goes to the police station in person to report the theft

The desk sergeant takes all the details of the theft including the owner's name address where the car was parked and the approximate time it was taken and also a complete description of the vehicle

If the car is located by a patrolman or one of the two city cruiser cars the time place and condition of the vehicle is reported back to the police department In cases where police are definitely sure that the car has not been touched after being located fingerprints are taken

In the event that the car is suspected as used in connection with a felony a rigid scrutiny for the telltale prints is made Prints found on the car are immediately recorded and sent to the London prison farm to be checked at the state identification bureau

The fingerprints of thousands of persons who have been arrested in the state on felony charges are on file at London and prints received there can be classified and identified within a few minutes

Unlocked cars and those in which the ignition keys have been left are the first targets for the automobile stealer New cars police officials pointed out are better safeguarded but present a higher prize to the thief and are apparently worth more effort to steal

If a new car the doors and ignition of which have been locked is reported stolen police hold little hope for its recovery First it isn't an amateur who knows the tricks of the trade well enough to make off with a car found under these conditions and second, older model cars do not furnish enough profit to entail extra bother in taking them when across the street may be another which is easier to move

ANNUAL SESSION OPENED BY COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

Special to The Star

PHILADELPHIA Oct 19 — Medical practice and hospital service in the United States and Canada today are giving the people of these two great nations the best that medical science has to offer declares Dr George Crile of Cleveland chairman of the board of regents of the American College of Surgeons which is opening its twenty sixth annual Clinical Congress here today

The 1936 list of approved hospitals in the United States and Canada was announced at the opening session

"The American College of Surgeons is dedicated to the improvement of our hospital system and medical practice says Dr Crile and through its requirements for approval of hospitals it stimulates those institutions to contribute to the advancement of medical science as well as provide proper care for the sick and injured and teach health regulations for the prevention of disease so that hospitals may better fulfil their sacred duty of saving human lives

One out of every 15 persons throughout the United States and Canada was a patient in a hospital last year Today there are approximately 800 000 persons in hospitals receiving treatment for various ailments or diseases Inasmuch as no person can foretell when he may need hospital care knowing about hospitals in times such as these is extremely important and actually constitutes a measure of preparedness Each year the American College of Surgeons publishes a list of approved hospitals with which the public should be thoroughly familiar

Approved List Explained

Explanation of the approved list of hospitals was made at the opening of the Congress by Dr Malcolm T MacEachern associate director of the American College of Surgeons who has charge of the Hospital Standardization movement Relating its history development and program Dr MacEachern stated The hospital standardization movement was inaugurated 19 years ago by the American College of Surgeons now comprising approximately 14 000 leading surgeons in the United States and Canada for the purpose of encouraging assisting and guiding hospitals to meet certain definite requirements for the proper care of patients At that time only 89 hospitals in the United States and Canada could measure up to the requirements This number has now increased to 2 56[illegible] per cent of all hospitals of 25 beds and over caring for acute diseases More than 40 000 individual surveys of hospitals have been completed by the American College of Surgeons at its own expense a mammoth task performed solely for the protection and benefit of the public

Since the inauguration of the Hospital Standardization movement the death rate in approved hospitals has been cut in half Risk in major surgical operations has been reduced to a minimum methods of administering anesthetics have greatly improved and the treatment of cancer goiter fractures and other serious conditions is vastly more effective Moreover during the past two decades the average stay of patients has been reduced one-half in approved hospitals

[illegible] Palms, fern [illegible] and baskets of white chrysanthemums [illegible] the altar.

The bride's gown was of [illegible] in a high neckline [illegible] graduated [illegible]. Her bridal [illegible] orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet [illegible] chrysanthemums [illegible] bride to the altar [illegible] her father and her sister Mrs [illegible] Rogers was her matron of honor [illegible] Rogers [illegible] silk [illegible] foundation with silver trimming. Miss Martha Jane Roberts, cousin of the bride, was her bridesmaid. Her gown was of a light blue shade fashioned on the same lines as the maid of honor's and both carried bouquets of Talisman roses and pink and white pompons. Charlotte Marie Ganson, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a gown of pink silk made floor length and carried a silver basket of orchid and white pompons.

Clyde Born, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were Clifford Ward, Thomas Reed, Darrell Vermillion and Ralph Walters.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 75 guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs W I Rogers of 763 Sheridan road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr and Mrs Delbert C Born of Bellefontaine avenue. They will make their home at 778 Congress street upon their return from a honeymoon to Washington D C and other points in the east.

Miss Etta Mae Cook, daughter of Mr and Mrs Lowell A Cook of 118 South Seffner avenue, and Harold VanHouten, son of Mr and Mrs William VanHouten of 432 Lee street, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 11:40 o'clock at the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev J A Carriker. The single ring ceremony was read before the altar decorated with palms, seven branch candelabrum and baskets of yellow dahlias. Mrs Harriet Davis at the organ played Indian Love Call, I Love You Truly and the wedding march from Wagner's Lohengrin.

The bride wore a long gown of royal blue chiffon velvet made with a high shirred neckline and tiny acorn buttons from the neck to the waist. Her turban was of the material of her gown. She carried an arm bouquet of American Pillar roses tied with white tulle. Her sister, Miss Annabelle Cook, was her only attendant. She was in a black velvet gown and turban of the same model as the bride's and carried Briarcliff roses. Mr VanHouten was attended by his brother Herman VanHouten of Claremont N H. Ushers were Robert Mercer of Delaware and Harold Chapman and Carl S[illegible]crest of Marion.

A reception at the church was followed by a wedding dinner at the bride's home. A wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and blue candles in crystal holders tied with yellow tulle decorated the table. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs Harold Roecker, Mrs John Dilsaver, Mrs Hugh Greer, Miss Esther Dilsaver, Miss Vivian Greer and Miss Dorothy Strawser. In the afternoon an informal reception was held at the VanHouten home with Mrs Herman Van

Men Love Peppy Girls
You can become peppy this easy way
If you are happy and peppy and full of fun, men will take you places. If you are lively, they will invite you to dances and parties.

BUT if you are cross, run down and lifeless and always tired out, men won't be interested in you. Men don't like quiet girls. Men go to parties to enjoy themselves. They want girls along who are full of pep.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND helps give you more pep and energy. For over sixty years girls and women have been taking this famous old medicine to [illegible] help give them strength, energy, sparkle. Notice the girls and women about you who are full of pep. Ask them what makes them peppy. If they are honest many of them will give the credit to LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. You, too, try LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Girls with pep are more attractive to men. —Adv.

[illegible] Pudding

Select the fish that is recommended as the best on the market at the present time for baking Stuff fish with a dressing made of one cup cracker crumbs or tiny toast cubes one fourth cup melted butter one fourth teaspoon salt one fourth teaspoon white pepper one teaspoon grated onion one teaspoon chopped parsley one teaspoon finely chopped pickle Mix ingredients in order given and stuff fish Fish should then be sewed together or held together with toothpicks Season fish with salt and pepper and place in an open pan

Scalloped potatoes call for [illegible] potatoes three tablespoons of butter three tablespoons flour one and one-half cups milk one-half teaspoon salt and a generous dash of paprika Peel and dice the raw potatoes place in casserole Pour over butter sprinkle in flour and seasoning Bring milk to the boiling point and pour over potatoes Cover casserole for baking

Green beans will be tender and retain their natural color if washed cut into size for serving and placed in a casserole Add one-half cup of water and seasoning and cover

Crispy apple pudding is just the dessert after a full dinner Peel core and quarter eight apples Grease a pie pan well and fill with sections of apple Work one teaspoon cinnamon one cup sugar one fourth cup shortening one fourth cup butter three fourths cup flour together into a crumbly mixture Pack tightly over apple If apples are dry a fourth cup of water should be placed in the bottom of the pan Serve warm with cream or top milk

Placing of the foods in an oven is important The fish goes on the low rack to bark potatoes in front On the upper rack place the green beans and the crispy apple pudding

You may now go about your business or pleasures and within two hours the dinner can be on the table Oven meals are such a convenience that I would like you to share this pleasure that is the right of every woman owning an insulated and thermostatically controlled oven

Suggested Menus

Space does not permit giving explicit instructions and recipes for other menus However the following menus will work to your advantage and give added leisure

Baked Ham Dinner

A two pound slice of ham may be sprinkled with brown sugar and stuck with several whole cloves Cover with slices of pineapple add one half cup of juice and bake uncovered With the ham serve potatoes that have been pared sliced and placed in a casserole with half cup of water Beets or fresh lima beans are prepared in the same way Both dishes covered For dessert a peach cobbler is quickly made by covering a large canned peach with a rich biscuit dough If you prefer brown sugar or currant jelly may be used as a filling for the peach Bake uncovered This dinner is baked in an oven of 350 degrees for one and three-fourths hours

Budget Dinner

Meat Loaf
Pimento Potatoes
Mexican Slaw (Refrigerator)
Apple Tapioca Pudding

Bake for one and one-half hours at 350 degrees Fahrenheit

Breaded Veal Steak
Sweet Potatoes with Pineapple
Vegetable Casserole
Gingerbread

Bake for one hour in 350 degree oven

* * *

Roast Chicken
Mashed Potatoes
(steam then mash)
Creamed Peas
Mincemeat Pie

Fowl and vegetables are placed in an oven at 350 degrees Fahrenheit Allow two and one half hours for a three and a half pound fowl The double crust pie is placed in the oven during last hour

Mrs George Thurn

A FIRESIDE SUPPER

Cold nights make the fireplace more appealing A casserole dish fruit hot bread and a beverage gives one an easily served meal that can be enjoyed before an open fire

FLAKEY BOTTOM PIE CRUST

For a one crust pie when the shell is baked separately brush the bottom crust over with slightly beaten egg and bake in a hot oven of 425 degrees F For a fruit pie brush over with egg and mix four tablespoons flour one fourth teaspoon salt with the sugar to be used in the pie Put half the sugar mixture on the bottom crust add fruit and cover with remaining sugar Place in a very hot oven for 10 minutes (450 degrees F) then reduce to 325 degrees F and continue for 30 or 40 minutes

MOLASSES IN CAKE

If molasses is blended with other liquid before adding to a cake, it will work in much more easily Molasses cakes or cookies should be baked at a lower temperature than plain cake as they have a tendency to develop a bitter flavor under intense heat

Cherries for Salad

Remove the stones from white or black cherries Replace the stone with a nut meat This makes a surprise salad that is delicious Cherries may be molded with a gelatine mixture or served on a nest of lettuce

Cream To Whip

Cream will whip if the unbeaten white of an egg is added Allow to get very cold and it will whip without any trouble

Solid Cup Custards

Cup custards will bake solid and not whey if placed on a trivet on a number of thicknesses of paper in hot water Bake at a low temperature of 300 degrees F

ELEMENTS NEEDED IN BALANCED DIET

Twelve Groups of Foods Essential for Complete Nutrition Program

Twelve groups of food stuffs are brought into the daily diet if first consideration is given to the nutritive value of foods These are milk in some of its various forms potatoes tomatoes and citrus fruits leafy green and yellow vegetables dried beans peas and nuts dried fruits other vegetables and fruits not mentioned eggs lean meat poultry and fish flour baked goods and cereals, fatty foods such as butter vegetable shortenings bacon and oils and sugars which include jam jellies syrups honey and molasses

According to a most enlightening booklet recently published by the U S department of agriculture the well balanced liberal diet would include

Milk One quart daily for each child (to drink or in cooked food) One pint for each adult (to drink or in cooked food)

Vegetables and Fruits Six to seven servings daily One serving daily of potatoes or sweet potatoes One serving daily of tomatoes or citrus fruits Two and one half to three servings daily of vegetables at least half of which are leafy green or yellow kinds Nine to ten servings a week of fruit (once a day sometimes twice)

Eggs Four to six a week also some in cooking

Meat fish or poultry Once a day sometimes twice

Butter At every meal

Bread cereals and desserts As needed to meet calorie requirements or as desired so long as they do not displace the protective foods

It is possible for the home maker to properly feed her family at a minimum cost yet serve them body building and health giving foods If the food cost must be kept low it can be done by using a large quantity of cereal products and milk and only sufficient vegetables fruits eggs and lean meats to supply vitamins minerals and proteins not adequately furnished by bread and milk and enough fats and sweets to make up the necessary requirements for bodily needs

From the home economics department of our government we have been given a sample menu that is adequate and yet comes within the scope of the limited income

Breakfast Sliced fruit (adults) orange or tomato juice (young children) hot whole-wheat cereal toast milk (children) coffee (adults)

Lunch or Supper Savory beans poached eggs (young children) bread and butter fresh grapes or pears milk (children) coffee (adults)

Dinner Meat and cereal loaf (ground beef and liver) scalloped potatoes buttered beets with beet tops bread and butter hot gingerbread milk (children)

For the more liberal budget the daily menu could be

Breakfast Sliced oranges hot cereal (children) soft cooked eggs whole-wheat toast milk (children) coffee (adult)

Lunch or Supper Cream of potato soup toast avocado-orange salad French dressing milk (children)

Dinner Baked ham raisin sauce sweet potatoes brussels sprouts hot biscuits Waldorf salad chocolate honey cake milk for all

The Marry-Go-Round

LOVE WITHOUT BLINDERS

Many a girl feels that life would be a lot more exciting if a man would only put the same enthusiasm and eloquence into his love-making that he puts into his political arguments

* * *

Nowadays when the newspapers announce the engagement of two screen stars it's a question of which one will get in the dental first

* * *

Automobiles like love give life a certain charm of uncertainty A man never knows whether a blow out is going to make him late for dinner or land him in the emergency hospital

* * *

A skidding husband may go around and around but somehow he always manages to come out somewhere near home when he finally straightens up

* * *

If you have to diagnose the emotion you feel it is not love Because love is as unmistakable as a toothache or a black eye

* * *

The old-fashioned wife had a cinch But nowadays a woman has to spend most of her life keeping from flying out of the window with one hand while she shoos the wolf away from the door with the other

* * *

When a man passes 45 without ever having had a foolish impulse to marry it's hard to decide whether his heart is burned out or just ossified from lack of exercise

* * *

A woman may overlook a perfunctory good-bye caress from her husband but when his kiss of welcome has a new flavor of ardour that she does not recognize she starts speculating

* * *

To love a woman blindly was easy The amazing thing about a modern man is his ability to love them with his eyes wide open

To Whiten Finger Nails

Powdered borax mixed to a paste with water will whiten finger nails Press under nails let remain five minutes and wash out

NEED NO IRONING

If bath towels are allowed to hang until dry they will need no ironing Shaking them occasionally while drying will make them fluffy

TO CLEAN PEWTER

Make a thick paste of whiting (can be bought at any drug store) and lemon oil Rub Wash with a hot sudsy water rinse dry then polish

FOOD THAT IS TOO SALTY

Some of the saltiness may be removed by slicing a raw potato into the kettle Some may be offset by the addition of small amount of sugar

One of the featured foods of the Gas Company's Cooking School.

This Is What Miss Scatterday Says About BANANAS . . .

"A fine nutritious food that can be prepared in a great many different ways either cooked or raw For eating raw, the skins should be a deep yellow flecked with brown, for cooking very light yellow I certainly recommend bananas for old and young alike"

VON BROMBERG IN MAT TILT TONIGHT

Count Von Bromberg of Germany and Higami of Japan will renew an old acquaintance when they meet in a grudge battle on tonight's wrestling program at the Shovel gymnasium. The match is over a 90 minute time limit with two falls to win, carries an extra surprise for Marion fans.

The method of wrestling for the first fall will be either catch as catch can or jackets depending upon the flip of a coin. The second will revert to the other style and the final fall will be the choice of the wrestler scoring the quicker of the first two rounds.

In the other featured bout Dick Gerber of South Bend will face the rough and tough Jack Domar of Toledo. Both have visited the Marion ring frequently and Gerber was on last week's mat program. A 20-minute preliminary will open the card at 8:30 o'clock.

ASHLAND WINS FROM DOVER; MARION NEXT

Victory Sets New Record for North Central Ohio League Team

Special to The Star

ASHLAND, Oct. 19 — Ashland High's football team after galloping to a 32 to 0 victory over Dover here Saturday afternoon today began preparation to invade Marion this week for a renewal of North Central Ohio league warfare.

Ashland's win over Dover established a new record. It was the first time in history that the victors had won its first four games without the opposition crossing Ashland's goal line.

The home team picked up two touchdowns in the opening period, scored another in the third and added two in the final quarter. The lineups follow:

21 CONTESTS BOOKED FOR OHIO COLLEGE GRIDDERS THIS WEEK

Wesleyan To Travel to Huntington for Game With Marshall Saturday

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19—Ohio State's [illegible] back to the [illegible] at the expense of Indiana [illegible] schedule of three Big Ten [illegible] and nine Ohio conference [illegible] feature next week's 21 game slate for Ohio college gridders.

The Bucks beaten by [illegible] Panthers and Northwestern's Wildcats on successive Saturdays, see [illegible] Bo McMillin's [illegible] determined to use the entire bag of tricks in an attempt to get back on the winning side.

Five of the week end clashes are scheduled Friday [illegible] under the floodlights. The nocturnal headliner pits Akron and Muskingum, Ohio conference leaders, against each other at New Concord. The [illegible] for [illegible] has [illegible] a [illegible]. The winner will take undisputed leadership, as no other unbeaten team has scored more than one victory.

Western Reserve which opens [illegible] with five wins in [illegible] to Toledo for a [illegible] with the Rockets. In another [illegible] Cincinnati [illegible] the other [illegible] team in the [illegible] entertains Ohio University at Oxford.

Dayton engages [illegible] Pearcats Saturday night in the Queen City, while Ohio Wesleyan goes to Huntington for a tilt with Marshall rounding out the first full week end of the season for the Buckeye loop entrants. Cincinnati and Miami with [illegible] each are leading the league.

In addition to the Akron-Muskingum headliner [illegible] night other Ohio league games under the lights are Otterbein at Marietta and Findlay at Ashland, with Kenyon meeting Capital in Columbus in the afternoon. Davis Elkins [illegible] Cincinnati for a game with Xavier's powerhouse [illegible].

Saturday's Ohio conference [illegible] are Oberlin at Wittenberg, Wooster at Mount Union, Heidelberg at Ohio Northern, Kent State at Bowling Green and Case at John Carroll.

Denison at Hobart, [illegible] at Bluffton, Hiram at Buffalo, [illegible] (Ind.) Teachers at Defiance, Louisville Municipal at Wilberforce and Alfred Holbrook [illegible] technical round out the Saturday slate.

Saturday's contests saw three erstwhile unbeaten teams tossed out of the running and found the last [illegible] goal lines crossed. Heidelberg, Ohio Northern and Baldwin Wallace were first defeat victims while the Student Princes and the Polar Bears yielded their first points of the season to [illegible]. Only Alfred Holbrook which has dropped four in a row has failed to score a point this year.

Purdue To Oppose Minnesota Saturday; Badgers Lose to Notre Dame

By EARL HILLIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—Two of the [illegible] groups of packed stars in the Big Ten collide next Saturday at Minneapolis and the [illegible] pre-season Western conference football championship [illegible].

Purdue's Boilermakers, winner by decisive margins of their games [illegible] as many [illegible] oppose Minnesota's powerhouse in the day's outstanding gridiron battle. [illegible] Minnesota co-champion in 1935 with Ohio State, was the [illegible] favorite to repeat, while Purdue, hard hit by a [illegible] shower room explosion early in [illegible] losing two regulars, was given only slight championship consideration.

The Boilermakers, in [illegible] Wisconsin and Chicago, flexed a powerful backfield in Cecil Isbell, John Drake, Fred [illegible] and Wayne G[illegible]. Minnesota has power and speed aplenty in Andy Uram, Julius Alfonse, Bud Wilkinson, Vic Spadaccini, Thompson, [illegible] Gmitro and Moore.

Isbell, 6-foot 185-pounder moved from halfback to fullback, scored once against Chicago Saturday and passed for three other touchdowns as the Maroons bowed 35 to [illegible]. [illegible] fast and [illegible] and if the Gophers [illegible] their victory streak probably will reach 21 straight next Saturday. Coach Bernie Bierman's team had little trouble defeating Michigan Saturday 26 to 0.

Northwestern which came from behind to beat Ohio State in a 14 to 13 thriller plays the [illegible] Illinois eleven. The Wildcats will be favored but Illinois with several good sophomores showed increased experience and a stubborn defense [illegible] Saturday in a scoreless tie with Iowa.

Indiana which lost to Nebraska 13 to 9 after leading through the first half plays Ohio State in a game which may be a [illegible] the air lanes. Michigan [illegible] two conference games [illegible] side the Big Ten [illegible] victory meeting Columbia [illegible] Arbor. Chicago, Wisconsin and Iowa have open dates. The Badgers lost Saturday to Notre Dame 27 to 0 making [illegible] scrap of it in the first half before being worn down.

IF YOU WOULD MIND OUR BUSINESS INSTEAD OF OTHER PEOPLE'S, WE WOULDN'T HAVE SO MANY UNPAID BILLS STARING US IN THE FACE!
HOW CAN I KEEP UP WITH THE BILLS WHEN I HAVE SUCH AN EXTRAVAGANT WIFE? THERE'S AN OLD SAYING—"MONEY TALKS"—BUT ALL IT SAYS TO ME IS "GOOD-BYE"!
IF MONEY TALKS, I WISH YOU'D LEAVE SOME OF IT AROUND HERE TO KEEP ME COMPANY—WHY A PERSON WOULD THINK I WAS NOTHING BUT YOUR COOK!
